GLENDALÉ 11 T.V. ANNOUNCES NEW EDITION OF “GLENDALÉ INSIDER”

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The new edition of the “Glendale Insider” features several recent events happening in Glendale including the announcement from the U.S. Air Force about more F-35’s coming to Luke Air Force Base, an open house hosted by Glendale’s new police chief Debora Black and a watermelon festival in the historic downtown.

Television and online viewers can also learn how to apply to be on a city board or commission. In a separate story, Glendale 11’s cameras go behind-the-scenes to give viewers a tour of Tolmachoff Farms, a local business managed by generations of the same family. Other stories in this edition feature Glendale Fire offering safety tips for scalding prevention and the city’s Parks and Recreation Department highlighting summer programs for kids such as the Foothills 360 program and the latest happenings at the library.

The “Glendale Insider” can be seen on Glendale 11 at various times throughout the day or each individual story can be seen on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11. For more information about Glendale 11 or the new TV show, visit www.glendaleaz.com/glendale11.
